Home Repair Cost Sharing

Home Repair Share™ (also referred to as HRS), is a mutual cost sharing service provided on behalf of its participants through Mustard Share Foundation, LLC. As a faith-based cost sharing platform, HRS is not subject to state and federal insurance regulations, but certain states may require the following disclosure:

NOTICE: HRS is a mutual cost sharing community. HRS is not insurance, a warranty, or service contract, nor is it offered through an insurance, home warranty or service contract company. HRS does not insure, guarantee, or indemnify, nor does it provide surety, service contracts, guarantor-ship, or promise that your home repair bills will be paid or assigned to others for payment. Whether anyone chooses to help you with your home repair costs will be totally voluntary. HRS should never be considered as a substitute for an insurance, home warranty, or service contract. Whether you receive any cost sharing for home repairs and whether or not this platform continues to operate, you are always liable for any and all repair costs. HRS is not subject to the regulatory requirements or consumer protections of your particular state's insurance statutes.

Please seek the advice of an insurance professional for a further understanding between state-regulated insurance and cost-sharing ministries.

Participation enables eligibility to share home repair bills with other like-minded participants. Participation (or membership) does not give you any rights as a legal member of a company or corporation, not-for-profit or other entity.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What is a home warranty?

A. The Service Contract Industry Council (SCIC) defines a home warranty as service contracts that "cover repair or replacement of a home's major systems, such as heating, air conditioning, electrical and plumbing and major appliances for renewable one-year terms.

Q. How is Home Repair Share different?

HRS offers a monthly subscription based cost-sharing platform that protects like-minded homeowners from the high cost of unexpected repairs and replacements on home systems and appliances.

Q. What is Home Repair Share?

A. We're the founder in home protection cost sharing, helping with the high cost of home repairs, giving peace of mind to like-minded homeowners, no matter the age of their home. We offer a virtual environment of convenience with real life help for home repairs. If your buying or selling a home, or if you've been in your home for years, we've custom made a Home Repair Share package built to give you control with double the protection. With like-minded pro's across the country and the most complete protection on the market, we share each others burdens.

Q. How is HRS like-minded?

A. The early Christian tradition included sharing supplies, goods and necessities with one another depending upon who had need. We are exhorted to share with others, and encouraged to share in one another's burdens based on the bible. Sharing with other like-minded families is a longstanding faith-based tradition.

Q. What kind of oversight is there at HRS?

A. HRS is overseen by a Committee that verifies a minimum of 80% subscription contributions go directly to eligible home repairs and is responsible for the policy decisions of the platform.

Q. What is the service call fee?

A. We do not have service call fees. HRS is not administered by an insurance or service contract company and it is NOT responsible for paying any portion of your home repair costs. Rather, if your eligible repair cost is paid, it is paid with funds received directly from other participants. With mutual sharing platforms, the participant is always responsible for their own costs.

FAQ's cont'd

Q. What is the Unshared Level

The Unshared Level (UL) is the dollar amount that a participant must meet toward the first Eligible Repair Costs, before any other eligible costs may be shared with other participants. For example, the UL is $150, so the first $150 of eligible repairs will not be approved for sharing. After that, eligible costs will be approved for sharing. The UL resets every 12 months of subscription on the effective date.

Q. What is the monthly premium?

A. Participants do not have a monthly premium. HRS has a suggested monthly subscription. Participants deposit their monthly subscription into their individual sharing account. Unlike insurance or a home warranty, your monthly subscription goes from your account to help other participants who have requested sharing pay for their eligible home repair costs.

Q. How does the claim process work?

A. Participants do not file claims, nor does HRS handle claims because the platform is not an insurance or home warranty company. "Claim" means that you have a right to someone else's financial resources. However, HRS does not pay your eligible repair costs with its money. If your eligible repair cost is paid, it is paid with subscription funds received directly from other participants. Participants can select their own service pros or find a like-minded contractor from the HRS if available. As long as you provide, before-after photos, submit invoices and payment, then HRS review the services provided and determine if the cost is eligible for sharing. After the unshared level (UL) has been met, sharing is processed.

Q. Why aren't routine recurring maintenance and preventative care not eligible for sharing?

A. Because HRS is not insurance or a home service contract, we do not behave like one. The primary purpose of HRS, as expressed by our participants is to help share each other's burdens. Burdens are eligible repair costs from unexpected breakdowns. Please feel free to schedule your routine preventative maintenance. We believe in good stewardship, and this practice of home protection helps promote accountability among our community.

PARTICIPATION

1. Summary

- a. Purpose: The purpose of HRS is to bring like-minded families together to share eligible home repair costs. This platform is based on shared beliefs and convictions, a tradition of mutual aid, and sharing one another's burdens as found in the Christian tradition. Participants contribute toward the eligible repair costs of other participants. These guidelines describe how HRS works and what is required of all participants.
- b. Voluntary: Participation in HRS is voluntary, and subscription contributions are non-refundable. Whether anyone chooses to share in another participant's home repair cost is wholly voluntary. Giving to other participants does not create a legally enforceable right to receive funds for home repair costs. As a voluntary cost-sharing platform, we are constrained by the resources shared. Participation may be declined to those who expect sharing beyond the capacity of its participants.
- c. Participants: Participants are those who give monthly subscriptions to other participants for home repair costs, and receive help from other participants when they need it. Participants may submit eligible repair costs for sharing according to these sharing guidelines.
- d. What HRS does not do: HRS does not have annual expiration dates as it is a perpetual monthly subscription service and does not offer renewal based on annual terms. There are no annual contract premiums or fees, service call fees, or purchase price for a service contract. HRS does not offer any refunds of monthly share contributions. We do not provide insurance, indemnification, surety, contracts, guarantor-ship for any service or affiliation.

2. Eligibility

- a. HRS participation is based on like-minded values shared by its participants, which allows them to know that their subscription sharing contributions are not being used for activity that conflicts with their beliefs and convictions. In order to join this platform, participants must meet and satisfy the following requirements:
- b. Convictions: In accordance with the Christian tradition, every participant agrees to live by the like-minded principles found in the Bible to bear one another's burdens and to be our brother's keeper.
- c. Like-minded beliefs: Participants agree to and share the following beliefs:
 - i. We believe in the God of the bible.
 - ii. We believe in the right-to-life for all humanity.
 - iii. We believe in the Christian tradition of marriage spoken by Christ.
 - iv. We believe cost-sharing follows our faith-based tradition.
- d. Care for your home Participants agree that they will take proper care of their home by performing recurring maintenance on home systems and appliances to ensure unnecessary financial burdens on other participants. You may be asked to disclose the existing conditions of your home and willing to take suggestions to properly care for your home to minimize the financial burden to others on the platform.

3. Participant's Role

- a. Not an Imitation: HRS is not insurance or service contract and is not an imitation for those products. Participants must not assume or act as if HRS is insurance or a service contract. Participants declare HRS to be a like-minded platform based on the Christian tradition of sharing.
- b. Individual Accounts: Participants share with each other using individual accounts within Home Repair Share. Participants authorize Home Repair Share to:
 - i. transfer funds between Participant sharing accounts to facilitate sharing, and
 - ii. deduct costs of 20% maximum from subscription contributions to run and facilitate the platform.

4. Simple Easy Process: 1) Participants text or email HRS to notify when a breakdown has occurred prior to performing repairs. 2) Participants can request a contractor or use their own they know and trust. 3) Participants or contractor takes before and after pics and texts or emails to HRS. 4) HRS will facilitate sharing from participants individual accounts and process sharing for repair cost to be reimbursed to contractor or participant through an application that enables low cost transfer of funds immediately when possible.

5. Cancellation: If a participant would like to cancel the monthly subscription, they can text or email their request and HRS will cancel. There are no cancellation fees. There are no refunds for any subscription funds collected. HRS is not an annual service contract and therefore does not engage in pro-rata refunds of any kind. HRS subscription will be cancelled if the participant does not deposit the monthly subscription for more than two months. The cancellation date will be the last day of the month from which the monthly subscription was deposited. Only repair costs that were created on or before the cancellation date may be considered for sharing.

2. Appeal Sharing

- a. Faith-based sharing does not lend itself well to the mentality of legally enforceable rights. However, a participant can appeal decisions with sharing that they disagree with. Prior to appealing, participants should carefully consider and pray regarding if they really think an error was made. There is a 60 day period from the date the decision was made to make a request for review by HRS. A participant can request an appeal if:
 - i. repair info was misread,
 - ii. the guidelines were not applied correctly,
 - iii. contractor incorrectly recorded repair info.
- b. If a participant disagrees with HRS after review, they have 30 days to request review by Participant Committee made up of other participants. Both HRS and participant will provide a written statement. A video conference will be held so the Participant Committee can ask questions of both parties. A straightforward majority vote (three out of five) will determine outcome.

3. Biblical Resolution

- a. As Christians, participants of HRS believe the bible provides our roadmap and vision for how to provide resolution and reconciliation with each other.
 - i. Matthew 18:15 implores us to deal with disputes privately (not in public)
 - ii. 1 Corinthians 6:1-8 instructs us to resolve disputes within our own Christian community and not the world's.
 - iii. 1 Corinthians 12:25-27 helps us remember that we should have no division and that we are all individual members of the body of Christ.
- b. LEGAL NOTICE

The following legal notice is an effort to ensure that Participants understand that Home Repair Share™ is not an insurance company or a home warranty service contract company, and that it does not guarantee payment of home repair costs. The role of HRS is to enable Participants to help other Participants through voluntary financial gifts. Home Repair Share™, the Program of Mustard Share Foundation, LLC is a cost-sharing entity that has a stated Participant funding distribution that allocates a minimum of 80% of Participant Suggested Share Contributions go to the eligible home repair costs of other Participants. Twenty percent of Participant funds go to total operational expenses to run Home Repair Share™. HRS contributions (as well as Health Care Sharing Ministries) are not considered by the IRS and current US tax code as tax deductible items, therefore, any contributions given are not tax deductible. The definition of the term in these guidelines “Participant” does not mean that application to a Subscription constitutes the legal definition of “Member”, or an owner of Mustard Share Foundation, LLC. A participant in these guidelines only refers to a Participant belonging to a group of other like-minded people that coalesce within biblical, moral and ethical bounds outside and exclusive to the legal entity formation of this limited liability entity.

The organization facilitating the sharing of eligible home repair costs is not an insurance company, nor is it offered through an insurance company, and neither its Guidelines nor plan of operation constitute or create an insurance policy. In addition, HRS is not a home service contract company, nor is it offered through a home warranty company, and neither its Guidelines nor platform constitute or create a home warranty service contract. It does not guarantee, indemnify, protect or promise that your eligible home repair costs will be paid, reimbursed or assigned to others for payment. Whether anyone chooses to assist you with your home repair costs will be totally and completely voluntary because no other Participant will be compelled by law to contribute toward your home repair costs. As such, participation and subscription to any of its documents should never be considered to be insurance or a home service contract. HRS should never be considered as a substitute or replacement for an insurance policy or home service contract, and does not interfere in any way to those consumer products and does not prohibit its Participants to purchase insurance policies or home service contracts. Participation and subscription to any publication issued by the organization shall not be considered as enrollment in any home service contract or as a waiver of your responsibility to pay your home repair costs. Whether you receive any payments for home repair costs and whether or not this platform continues to operate, you are always liable for all costs on your home. You should review this organization’s Guidelines carefully to be sure you understand any limitations and responsibility of your participation.
